Father's Day

Today is Father's Day and we wish to thank all fathers for doing all that you do in the family. Tonight's lesson will focus on some reasons why fathers are needed today.

Father's Day as a holiday was inspired by the establishment of Mother's Day. The first celebrations of Father's Day began in 1910, prompted by Sonora Dodd. She had heard a sermon on mothers the year before and asked her preacher if something could be done to honor fathers as well. In 1910 several ministers in Spokane, Washington, coordinated their sermons to focus on fathers.

The idea of a national celebration was presented to Congress in 1913, but it took decades until it was finally signed into law. Lyndon Johnson made a proclamation in 1966 designating the third Sunday in June as Father's Day. It was finally signed into law as a permanent holiday in 1972.

Fathers have always been important in God's plan for the family. Consider these passages concerning what a father should be doing for the family.

- Provide for the family. Matt. 7:7-12.
- Teach the children. Eph. 6:4; Prov. 22:6; Deut. 6:1-9.
- Discipline. Heb. 12:5-12; Prov. 22:15.
- Love. 1 John 4:7-11; Luke 15:11-24.

Fathers have a tremendous responsibility. "And you fathers, do not provoke your children to wrath, but bring them up in the training and admonition of the Lord" Eph. 6:4. We appreciate you, fathers! Keep up the good work! Our prayer is that every father can be successful in seeing his children as faithful Christians. Mike

PM Sermon: Fathers Needed Today, Prov. 22:6

FATHERS ARE WONDERFUL PEOPLE

Fathers are wonderful people

Too little understood,

And we do not sing their praises

As often as we should...

For, somehow, Father seems to be

The man who pays the bills,

While Mother binds up little hurts

And nurses all our ills...

And Father struggles daily

To live up to "his image"

As protector and provider

And "hero of the scrimmage"...

And perhaps that is the reason

We sometimes get the notion

That Fathers are not subject

To the thing we call emotion,

But if you look inside Dad's heart,

Where no one else can see

You'll find he's sentimental

And as "soft" as he can be...

But he's so busy every day

In the grueling race of life,

He leaves the sentimental stuff

To his partner and his wife...

But Fathers are just wonderful

In a million different ways,

And they merit loving compliments

And accolades of praise,

For the only reason Dad aspires

To fortune and success

Is to make the family proud of him

And bring them happiness..

And like Our Heavenly Father,

He's a guardian and a guide,

Someone that we can count on

To be always on our side.
