Last Sunday was an encouraging and uplifting day for the Florence Boulevard congregation. Each of you stepped up in a great way to make the day successful.

We want to thank Joe, Cody, and Sonya for their extra efforts in redesigning and producing our new bulletin.

Tim and Judy Thompson did their usual superb job coordinating our fellowship meal.

Thanks goes out to Pam Thomas and Kristie Woodfin for the beautiful flowers that decorated the tables in the fellowship hall.

We are grateful for Deb Harrington and Pat Carpenter along with the "Mugs and Muffins" ladies for providing goodie bags for all of our visitors.

Thanks to Michala Wells for putting together our new visitors packets.

And finally, a huge thanks goes out to all the women (and men) who cooked and provided an abundance of food for our meal. You truly outdid yourselves!

Through each act of kindness you showed the love of Christ. You all make Florence Boulevard a great place to work, worship, and serve our Lord. We love and appreciate each of you!

MEMBER SPOTLIGHT

Today, June 18th is known across America as Father's Day. A day to celebrate and honor fathers for their example and actions to inspire and raise their children. We as Christians know that one day is not the proper way to give honor to fathers but every day we should be aware of and acknowledge the examples and actions of good Godly fathers. One day in June of 1908 in West Virginia, after a mining disaster killed over 300 men and left over 1000 children fatherless, a memorial service was held to honor the lost fathers. The next year, 1909 in Spokane, Washington a woman wanted to acknowledge a man who raised six children by himself after his wife died giving birth to the sixth child. Thus was the beginning of a tradition of known as Father's Day born. Today as a congregation we should all be grateful and appreciative of the fathers who train up their children in the right way. We should also be especially thankful and grateful for those single fathers who bring up their children the right way. May God bless each one who has the honor to be a father.

Put on then, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, compassionate hearts, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience,¹³ bearing with one another and, if one has a complaint against another, forgiving each other; as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive.¹⁴ And above all these put on love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony.
