

The Arrest

- John 18:1-11.
- At night, 600-1,000 soldiers, Judas betrays with a kiss.
- Peter strikes Malchus, the disciples flee.
- Jesus first charged with blasphemy, then treason.

Unlawful

- Against the law to arrest a man at night who is accused of a capital crime.
- Against the law to hold Jewish trials at night.
- Against the law to return a verdict in a capital case before going home for 1-2 days first.
- No defense was provided for Jesus.

The Jewish Trials

- First, with Annas. John 18:12-14, 19-24.
- Second, with Caiaphas. Matt. 26:57-68.
- Third, with Sanhedrin. Luke 22:63-71.

The Roman Trials

- First, with Pilate. John 18:28-38; Matt. 27:11-14.
- Second, with Herod. Luke 23:6-12.
- Third, back with Pilate. John 18:39-19:16.

