

THE VALUE OF SETTING UP STONES

JOSHUA 4: 1-24

PASSOVER

A historical illustration, likely a woodcut or engraving, depicting a caravan crossing a wide river. In the foreground, a large camel is being led by a person, with another camel and rider visible behind it. The river is filled with many more camels and riders, some of whom are using long poles to help guide the animals across. The background shows a hilly landscape under a clear sky. The entire scene is framed by a simple white border.
