Positively Possible

with Austin

They say when a person shows genuine care and concern for a child that the individual not only wins over the hearts of the children, but their parents as well. That is the case with my family. When Brianne is unable to attend services because one of our children is sick, several ladies step in and help out in big ways so I can still preach, teach, and talk to members. I (we) are so thankful to those ladies! But it's not just those ladies with my kids...it's any individual who sees a young parent struggling, in need of help, or in a place where they could use encouragement. Thank you!
