Florence Boulevard church of Christ

Positively Possible

with Austin

I walked into the Florence Blvd kitchen because we were providing a meal for the Cox family following Mrs. Nancy's funeral service. The meal was bountiful. The family was stirring in conversation, laughter, and a few tears. As I was leaving, I said thank you to Kim Crunk and Sandra McGuire for being there and helping to serve the Cox family. They shook it off and said they were grateful to have the opportunity. However, I found out later that each woman was at the building for another reason when they realized the food was being set out and the family was coming. So what did they do? They didn't finish their work and leave in a hurry. They stayed. They helped set up. They served. God provided an unexpected opportunity and they walked through the door of service. (And thank you Angi Medley for organizing the meal, Debbie Harrington for overseeing the serving, and all the women who prepared the food)

How bright a light we shine when we answer God's call of serving and caring for people. "As you have opportunity do good to everyone and especially those of the household of faith." Remember, God will open doors of opportunity, and with Him, service and care is [positively] possible!
