POSITIVELY POSSIBLE

WITH AUSTIN

Patty Hunt wanted so badly to come to our Sunday evening service with the Mars Hill chorus last week. When we heard that she was going to give it a go, Brianne’s mind started to race! Could we have a special welcome for her in the auditorium? Do we need to meet her in the parking lot? Can we have a special banner that everyone signs? As you already know, she chose the signed banner and placed it in the Family Room for an intimate welcome/celebration and prayer after the chorus performance...and it was special!

Brianne saw someone struggling and fighting and wanted to do something kind for her. You may not be a planner or an organizer, but you have the ability to see people where they are and try to do something kind for them (Galatians 6:9-10). You may not think this is possible, but remember, with our God all things are [positively] possible!

JOURNEY TO JESUS

WITH JOHN

Do you ever feel acutely aware of your surroundings? Some might call this a “sixth sense”, or as the dictionary defines, “a power of perception like but not one of the five senses: a keen intuitive power” We may also call it instincts or a gut feeling. This feeling, if we are in tune with it, can help save our lives and find our purpose. Have you ever been driving and you seem to feel someone glaring at you? You look and it confirms your suspicions? Or you’re walking to your car in a low-lit parking lot and you begin to run because you think “why not, it could save my life...or at worst, I look like a goober.” When we are NOT in this state, we are almost dulled to our senses. We tune out the traffic, beeps, coworkers, annoyances, and so much more. What worries me is that we may be tuning out the things that matter too: the hurting coworker, the uneasy look on your child’s face, the distancing of a loved one, your senses and especially the deep nagging pull within you for meaning, purpose and truth. What is The LORD trying to show you? What do you feel compelled to do? What are you trying to push back in your life that maybe needs to be revealed? A passion for helping people? Reaching the lost in the community? Rescuing the kids in the community? I hope you pursue it. It may change the world.

Response

Alyssa McFall responded to the invitation last Sunday morning asking for forgiveness from the congregation for judging others. Please keep Alyssa in your prayers in the coming days.

Sympathy

Our sympathy is extended to Pat Carpenter, and family, on the passing of Ray last Thursday evening. Ray's service will be held today at Williams Funeral Home. Visitation will be from 12:00 - 2:00 PM with the funeral services following at 2:00 PM.

Our sympathy is also extended to the family of Carolyn Wells who passed away this past Friday morning. Funeral arrangements are not known at this time.

Congratulations

Congratulations to Tyler & Amy Swinea, the proud grandparents of a new grandson, Clay Marlon Swinea, born March 12, weighing 8lbs.5oz., & 23"long. Clay is the son of Thomas and Tatyana Swinea. Congratulations Tyler & Amy!

Prayers

Our prayers go out to Linda Barnes in the loss of her daughter, Debra Chapin, this past week.

Thank You

We received a thank you note from the Cox Family this past week which reads:

"Thank you to everyone who sent cards, made visits, and phoned while Nancy was sick and also for the visits and cards after her passing. Thank you for the beautiful redbird throw sent to the funeral and for everyone who provided the food and served the family after the funeral. Please remember us in your prayers as we still grieve her passing. The Cox Family."

Meetings with the Elders

Meetings with the elders continue! The Elders will be available to meet with members from 5:30-6:15 PM in the Elders study. It is preferred, but not required, that members call the church office to set up an appointment in advance.

Home Bible Study Groups

Remember to sign-up for a Home Bible Study. Sign-up sheets are in the foyer. Please contact Brian McManus if you would be willing to host a study.
